

Major David Kane

Idaho State Police

Major Dave Kane worked for the North Dakota Bureau of Criminal Investigations from 1973 until 1976 as a Narcotics Investigator prior to coming to the Idaho State Police in 1976. He started his career with the Idaho State Police as a Narcotics Investigator in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho working virtually every type of narcotics investigations from undercover work to wiretaps.

In 1990, Major Kane was promoted to Special Agent in Charge of ISP's Lewiston, Idaho regional Investigations office and in 2003 became the first ISP Captain assigned to manage a combined Patrol and Investigations office.

In June of 2004, he was promoted to Major and assigned to ISP Headquarters in Meridian, Idaho where he manages the Investigations Operations for ISP. This includes, Criminal Investigations, Alcohol Beverage Control, Executive Protection, the Cyber Crime and ISP Training. Included in this is the Drug Endangered Children program for ISP.

Major Kane has been involved in various training programs throughout his career including; MP-5 instructor; Top Gun, which is an intensive narcotics investigation training program for police and prosecutors; coordinating the 2 Week Basic Narcotics school; and Life Skills, training based on the Enlightened Leadership principles.

Major Kane joined the faculty of The National Judicial College in 2005 and taught at the Western Regional Judicial Conference.